The Hostile Indians.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The following telegram was received here this morning:

"SAN FRANCISCO, July 13, 1877.

"Secretary of War, Washington, D. C.:

"The following is just received, dated Lewiston, July 11, forwarded from Portland today: In the absence of General Howard, who is beyond my reach, I think General McDowell should be informed that I have reliable information that Josephi's band has lately received considerable accessions, and it is feared that many other reservation Indians will join him. I would suggest that two hundred Washington Territory or Oregon troops be called for immediately, to prevent this and the damage that may follow during the absence of the troops, or until they can be replaced by regular troops.

"Col. Sully, who sends this dispatch, is an old officer of much service in Indian warfare and in the Department of the Columbia, and I do not feel at liberty to disregard his appeal.

"In some way unaccountable to me the Second Infantry, ordered here a week ago, has not yet started.

"I have sent forward every man I have been able to scrape together this side of Arizona, and altogether the four skeleton companies do not amount to a hundred men. Under these circumstances I approve the suggestion to call out for a limited time two hundred volunteers from Oregon or Washington Territory.

[Signed] "McDOWELL.

Duties on Steel and Iron Machinery.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The subject of collecting duties on machinery consisting of steel and iron comes before the Attorney General on the appealed case of the Clark Thread Company from the decision of the Collector at the port of New York, the case being submitted by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Promoted.

Resignation Accepted.

Demanding a Share.

Ex-Senator Fiske comes up from North Carolina demanding a share in the management of the Government patronage of that State. He has called upon the Secretary of the Treasury for a list of all North Carolina appointments in that department, and it is supposed that he has made similar demands upon other departments of the Government. Lists will probably be furnished him, but it is doubtful if the Senator will be allowed to run any portion of the machine.

Brackett's Removal.

In regard to the excitement over the case of Brackett, a special agent of the Treasury Department at New York, the Secretary of the Department says: It was not intended to remove Brackett, but simply to change him from one duty to another, as he is a confidential agent of the Secretary. The latter claims a right to change his duty without incurring the attacks of newspapers or denunciations of Captain Brackett. The Secretary is of the opinion that an officer of the Department is not willing to quietly obey the mandates of his chief, it is in order for him to resign. Captain Brackett does not seem to appreciate the situation.

A Bad Governor and his Nine-hundred-dollar Whisky Bill.

In connection with the charges already made that Gov. Axtell, of New Mexico, is secretly a Mormon and is conducting the administration of the affairs of that Territory in the interest of the Mormon Church, the following letter has been filed at the Interior Department:

"SALT LAKE CITY, July 7, 1877.

"To Mrs. May McPherson, Washington, D. C.:

"Brigham Young has declared that he baptiz'd E. B. Axtell into the Mormon Church, when he was received at Salt Lake as Governor of Utah. The leading priests received him and carried him to the Mormon Hotel, where he boarded.

"His whisky bill, amounting to $900, was paid by the City Council. He was shunned by the Gentiles, and was the chief figure in every Mormon gathering and Sunday-school festival. He was called 'Banjo' here, and his letters to the Salt Lake Herald are signed 'E. L. Oulipes.' He also took a disgraceful part in the Indian uprising, and is believed to have conspired with the Mormon priesthood against the lives of the Gentiles. It is not a Mormon by baptism he is certainly one in his ability. Judge Barman, in Beaver, can furnish a sworn statement of Brigham Young's declaration. [Signed]

"FREDERICK LOCKLEY,

"Editor Salt Lake Journal."

NEW YORK CITY.

Not Lord Beaconsfield.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW YORK, July 13.—A cable from London says the Earl of Beaconsfield had two interviews with the Queen early this week, and Wednesday Her Majesty presided at the Cabinet Council held at Windsor Castle. Yesterday the majority came to town and returned to Windsor in the evening. The subject of all these consultations with her advisors is understood to be the resignation of a prominent member of the Ministry, which is expected to be tendered to-day. The retiring member is not Lord Beaconsfield.

Tilden's Income Tax.

United States Attorney Woodward has filed a demurrer to the defense contained in the answer in the case of the United States against Ex-Governor Tilden to recover $150,000 alleged balance of his income tax due the Government, and avers that the defense does not constitute a defense to the complaint or to any part thereof. The case will now go to trial in the United States District Court.

Not Altogether Satisfactory.

The American Phototype Company, of New York, which secured the contract for manufacturing postal cards for four years from the 1st inst., have forwarded samples of their work. The paper used is of the requisite weight and quality, but the edges of the cards are rough, owing to the process used in cutting them. It is believed this complaint will be abated by any defects in the cards, and begin to fill requisitions within a few days.

LOUISVILLE SENGERSFEST.

Yesterday's Two Concerts.

National Associated Press to the Star.

LOUISVILLE, July 13.—The Sengerfest is a success. If, with the experiences of the first night this could be said, what now can be written after the brilliant triumph of last night? Early in the evening every seat was taken, and here and there, throughout the great hall stood throngs of anxious listeners, drinking in the rich melody which intoxicated an audience of ten thousand.

The matinee in the afternoon was the weakest part of the Festival. The gem of the programme was the piano solo, aria from "Freischnetz," by Miss Nettie Skillman. Mrs. Flora Mueller Kutz, of Cincinnati, earned a recall by her rendition of "Das Wald Veiglein." Miss Katie E. Hot, of this city, fairly dried the honors.

The night performance began with the overture "Ranzelude," by Schumann, by the orchestra, under the direction of Prof. O. O. Scheuler, of this city, and Musical Brand, of Cincinnati. Beethoven's "Die Himmel Ruchmen," was given by a grand chorus of male voices and orchestra. Miss Rollwagen sang a contralto solo, "I have lost my Eurydice," in style. Mrs. Otto Seiler, Reinmann sang the "Page's" song in "Huguenots" in a superb manner. Hoffman's "Fable of the Fairy Melusina," was a fitting finale for the grand Festival. The cast was "Melusina," Mme. Pappenheim; "Clotilde," Miss Louise Rollwagen; "Count Raymond," Franz Kemmerer; "Sauter," Mr. Otto Seiler; "King of Water Spirits," Mr. C. Kilbross.

MONTREAL'S BLOODY DAY.

Two Men Killed and Several Wounded.

National Associated Press to the Star.

MONTREAL, July 13.—It appears that Hackett, who was shot yesterday evening, was wearing an Orange rosette, and was set upon by a crowd. He ran up the steps of a store, and turned and fired on his pursuers. He had no sooner done so than a volley of shots were fired at him. His body is pierced by six bullets.

Edward Giroux, one of the Shamrock LaCrosse Club, was shot through the chest. A son of F. W. Hennessey, and Chas. Boon, a painter, were also wounded. About thirty shots were fired in all.

Other rows occurred, but without very serious injury. Several women, who wore Orange colors, were also attacked. Boon, who was wounded in the riot, died last evening. All is now quiet.

Hackett was in the employ of John McKillop & Co.; he was twenty-two years old and married. As his remains were being driven to the morgue the mob took of their hats and waved them in triumph. At 6 o'clock yesterday evening the Mayor addressed the assembled crowd, and called upon them to disperse, which they did shortly after.

DISTURBANCE AT TORONTO.

TORONTO, CAN., July 13.—A disturbance occurred at 8 o'clock last evening between some Orangemen and Catholics. The place was immediately surrounded by a large mob, principally boys, who commenced throwing stones, breaking windows, &c. Crowds appeared and threatened to shoot into the crowd. This was the signal for more stone throwing, but the timely arrival of a squad of police prevented further violence. A crowd of about eight hundred still maintain possession of the road, and serious trouble is feared.

Fires in Boston.

National Associated Press to the Star.

BOSTON, July 13.—There were six alarms of fire given here within nine hours ending at 1:15 o'clock this morning. The most serious fire was on Hanover and Salem streets, which damaged three buildings, causing a loss of $1,200; partly insured.

The upper stories of the building were occupied as tenements, and the occupants escaped in their night clothes, one man jumping from the second-story, but fortunately he was not slightly injured. Slight fires occurred at East Boston, and a three-thousand-dollar building was destroyed at Chimney Marsh.

Supposed Murder.

National Associated Press to the Star.

TRENTON, N. J., July 13.—There is considerable excitement over the supposed murder of Samuel M. Yomans, a builder, whose hat was found covered with blood and a bullet-hole through it, and also several private papers which were about his person.

Yomans was treasurer of Lodge No. 50, F. A. M., and had returned home from the lodge last night about 11 o'clock, since which time he has not been seen. It is thought that he has been robbed and murdered, and his body secreted. A search is being made.

Skeleton Found.

National Associated Press to the Star.

MILWAUKEE, July 13.—While digging a sewer on Brady street yesterday morning the workmen dug up the remains of a dead man included in portions of a pine box. The skeleton was removed to the Six's Engine-house, where the Coroner and President of the Board of Health visited it. No evidence was produced to show who the deceased was. CHAS. N. LILES, the young man who insulted a lady at Lincoln Park a few days ago, received a just dose this morning in $15 and costs. V. Sealzo's case has been continued to the 13th, and his bail fixed at $500.

PHILIP DOLLE, a German gardener, residing on East Walnut Hill, where he has a family, was struck and killed by south-bound passenger train No. 29, on the C. & D. Railroad, while he was walking on the track last evening in the neighborhood of Lockland. His scalp was cut in several places and both legs were broken. He was brought to the City Hospital, where he died last night.

THERE is some complaint in some parts of the city that the water supply is insufficient in the upper stories of buildings. Mr. Warden, engineer of the Water-works, attributes this to a lack of volume in pipes to supply the increased amount of water used. The numerous tapplings in certain localities draw off the supply before the water reaches the extreme points on that line of pipes and the supply is either entirely out of or greatly diminished.

Local Personals.

J. E. Hopkins and wife left the city last evening by the B. & O. R. R. for an extended trip down East, visiting Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston. Good-by, Judge, a pleasant trip and a safe return.

A MYSTERIOUS CASE.

A Wife's Cruel Deception.

A circumstance of the most mysterious character happened upon Walnut Hill yesterday evening. Wm. Nixon and his wife (they have no children) reside on Gilbert avenue, near Locust street. Mr. Nixon is foreman of the varnishing department of Mitchell & Rammeberg's furniture factory, and as usual went to his work yesterday morning.

About 5 o'clock in the afternoon a strange man, whom Mrs. Nixon had never seen before, called at the house, and in a most familiar manner, while his face expressed the utmost concern, laid his hand gently upon Mrs. Nixon's shoulder and said:

"Mrs. Nixon, I have bad news for you."

"What is it?"

"Oh, I hate to tell you."

"Tell me quick, is there anything the matter with William?" meaning her husband.

"There is."

"For God's sake tell me all."

"For the utmost composure and in an apparently feeling manner the stranger replied:
